

The Wild Robot: Adventure Guide for Adults

Facilitating Wonder: Enhance Your Family's Outdoor Experience

As an adult facilitator, you play a crucial role in bringing "The Wild Robot" adventures to life. Your enthusiasm and guidance will help create memorable experiences and foster a love for nature in the younger adventurers. This card provides tips and activities to enrich the family's journey through the activity pack.

Preparation Tips

- Familiarize yourself with "The Wild Robot" story (Click Here)
- Review the activity cards beforehand
- Check weather forecasts and pack appropriate gear
- Bring a first aid kit and plenty of water
- Charge your phone for emergencies (and photos!)

Facilitation Techniques

1. Ask open-ended questions to spark curiosity
2. Encourage observation by pointing out interesting details
3. Model enthusiasm for discovering and learning
4. Allow time for free exploration
5. Share your own observations and wonderings

Your Sensory Explorer Mission

1. Become a Nature Photographer: Document your family's adventures with photos or sketches
2. Be the Wild Robot Narrator : Create impromptu stories about your surroundings, inspired by Roz's adventures
3. Lead a Mini Nature Lesson: Research a local plant or animal beforehand and share interesting facts during your outing
4. Organize a Family Nature Challenge: Set up a friendly competition (e.g., who can spot the most bird species)
5. Create a Nature Soundscape: Use your phone to record ambient sounds for a memory audio collage

Roz's Invention Log

- Encourage reflection by discussing the day's discoveries over dinner
- Help children research questions that arose during the outing
- Facilitate a family art project using natural materials collected (with permission) or inspired by the day's adventures
- Plan future outings based on interests sparked by the activities

Mindfulness Moment

Take a few minutes during your adventure to practice mindfulness as a family:

- Find a comfortable spot and sit quietly for 2 minutes
- Focus on the sounds, smells, and sensations around you
- Share one thing each family member noticed or appreciated

Safety Reminder!

Always prioritise safety. Be aware of your surroundings, respect wildlife from a distance, and follow local guidelines and regulations for outdoor activities.
