

1. Three
2. Seven: white (e.g. M53), yellow (e.g. A55), pink (e.g. A489), brown (e.g. 1085m), green (e.g. A483), blue (M49) and black (motorway junctions, and in the scale)
3. Eleven: Ellesmere Port, Porthmadog, Portishead, Burry Port, Port-Eynon, Porthcawl, Aberporth, Port Talbot, Neath Port Talbot and Newport x2
4. Llandovery (contains 'Land Rover' without the central 'r')
5. Amman (in Ammanford/Brynamman, capital of Jordan) and Montgomery (capital of Alabama)
6. All of the words come after 'New' in a location on the map, but 'quay' is the only one that's a separate word (New Quay, Newcastle Emlyn, Newport and Newtown)
7. 199m height difference and 140km apart (the peaks are Snowdon and Pen y Fan)
8.
 - a. Bishops Castle – 'Prelate's fort' = straight definition of 'bishop's castle'; 'constructed from chess pieces' = bishops + castle, i.e. the word is made up of chess pieces
 - b. England – 'Cease' = 'end'; 'to cover short secreting structure' = written across ('to cover') 'gland' (a 'secreting structure'), shortened ('short') by one letter; 'in country' meaning that the answer can be found in a word defined by 'country'
 - c. Wales – 'Pod members' is 'whales', and 'heard' means that it sounds like that, i.e. 'Wales'; 'land' = straight definition for 'Wales'